

Summer Moments Number One

SAY YAY!

*"This is the day the Lord has made.
Let us rejoice and be glad in it."*

We're back at our Puget Sound (Salish Sea) summer headquarters... standing in the horseshoe pit
taking this photo.

Hartstine Island is on the far shore....
the roof on the left is over our camp sink...
the best dishwashing view in the world.

Two of our grandsons are doing a bit of grandstanding...
heeling the sailboat close to the gunnels..
no doubt expecting me to be watching.

I not only know what I'm seeing...
but I feel their feelings of wind in the sails and hand on the tiller.

These two are on a bachelor weekend...
less than two weeks and counting for a wedding day.

The groom-to-be was best man for his older brother...
eight or nine years ago...
now they exchange roles while the younger makes his vows.

We are still trying to unpack ourselves into the cabin...
so grateful for having the camp totally set up for Jean and me.

It's our second pandemic summer...
this time vaccinated but not "home free"
semi-limited as per doctor's instructions.

Last summer a wedding would have been impossible... this year it will happen
looking out over these same waters.

There will be "moments" we cannot plan or explain...
nor can they be "captured" in a photo or be fully described.

Summers are so slow coming...so soon gone...
making each day precious...
let us rejoice and be glad!

Art Morgan, Second Day of Summer, 2021